

Climber

A video game using hand-tracking and haptic feedback

We Play Games for the Experience

Climbing is Active

Virtual Climbing: A Better Experience

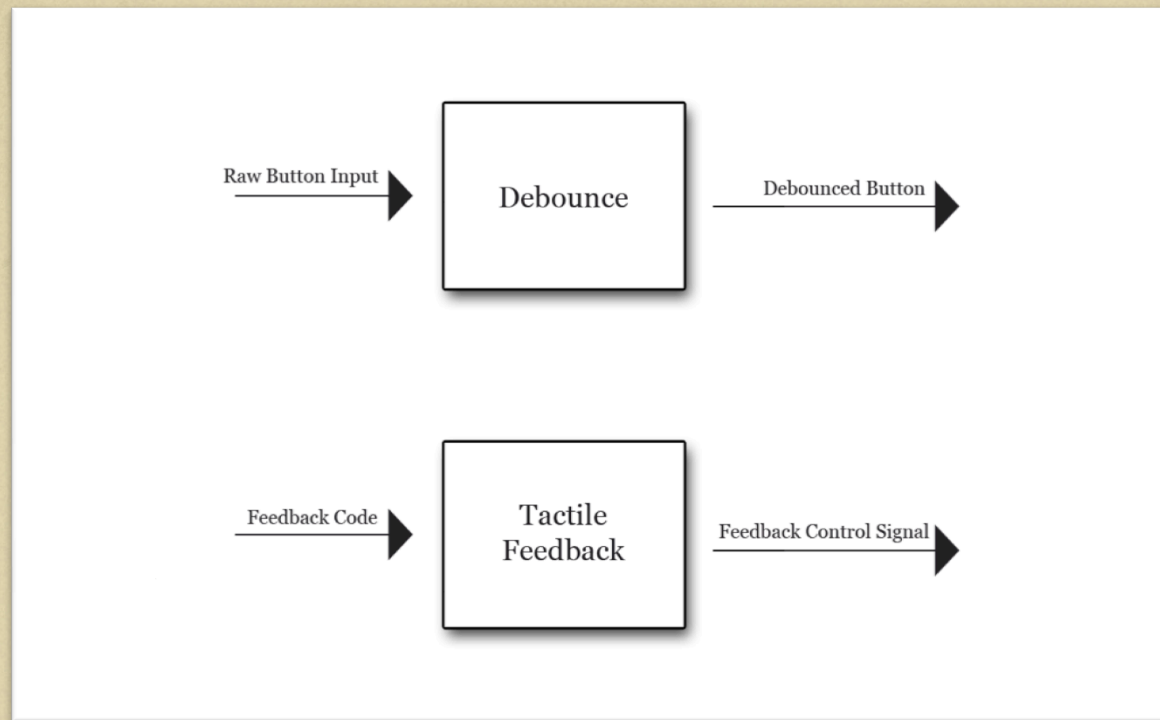

Three-Block Implementation

Input and Output Glove

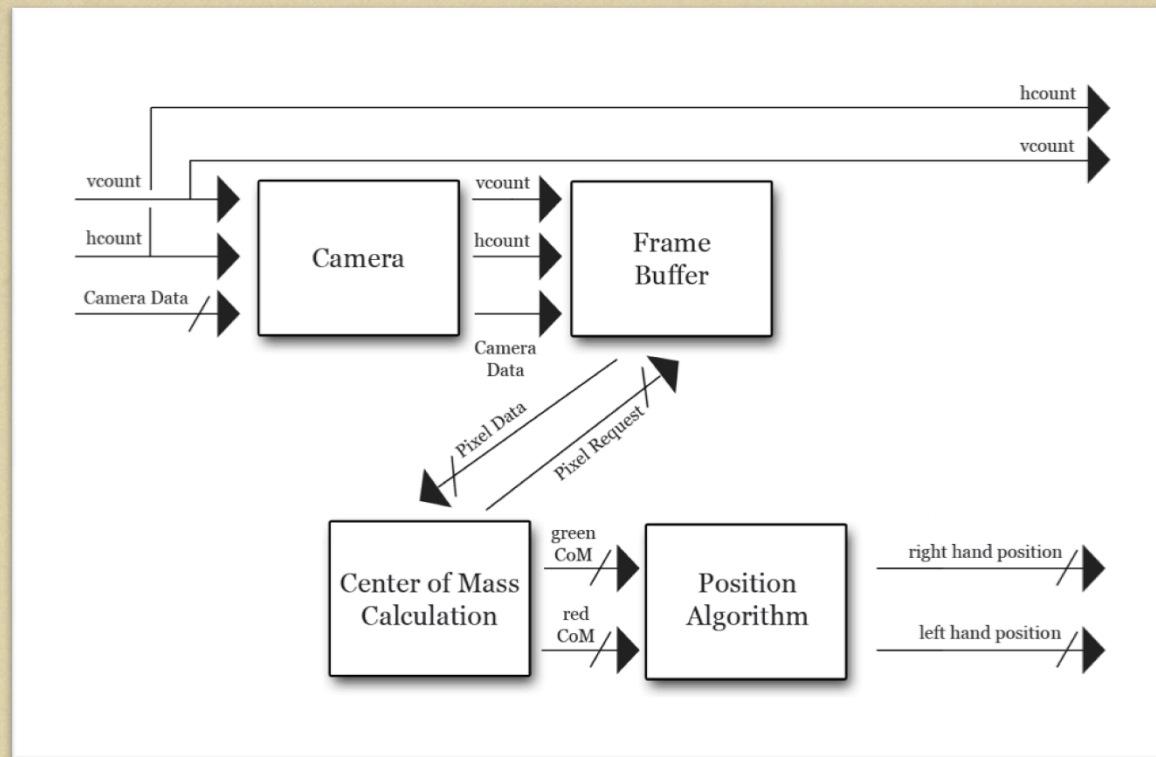

Simply Input-Output Control

Mapping Movement Through Color Tracking

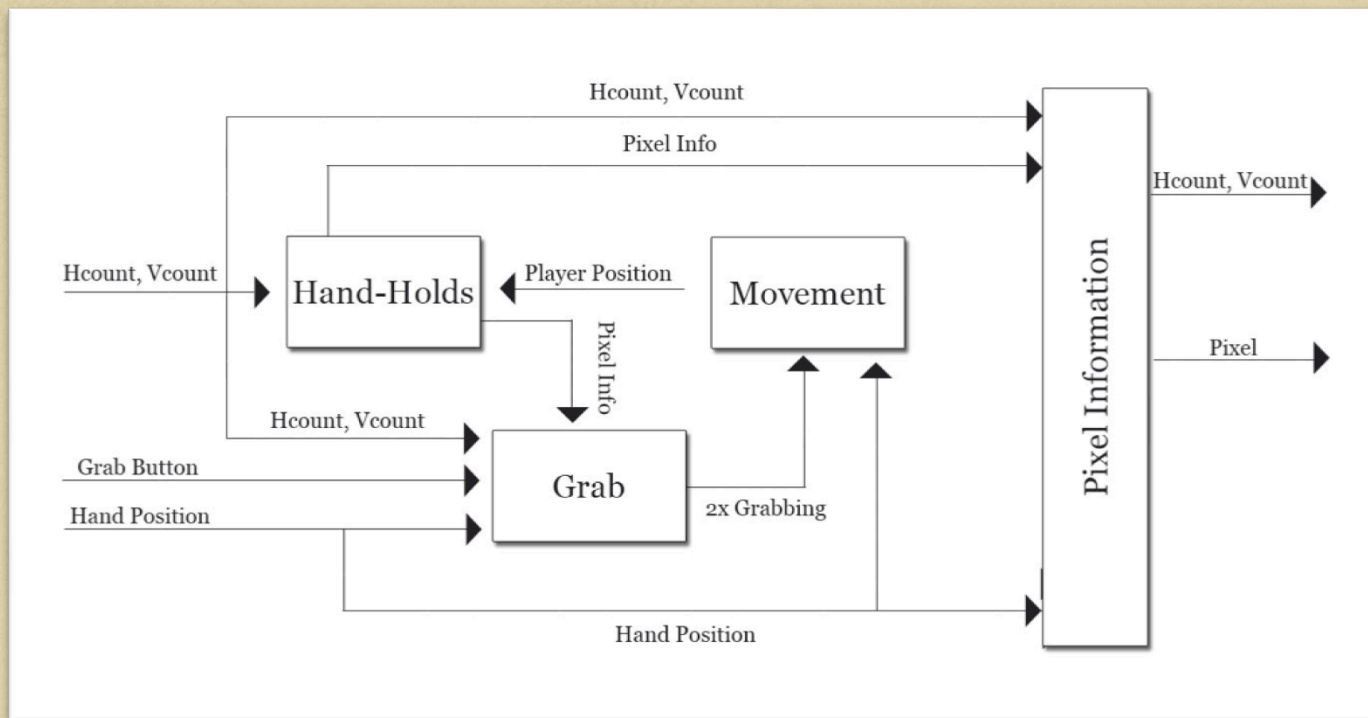

Accurate Camera-Based System

Gameplay Module

Physics Simulation and Video Output

Timeline

Nov 19	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Begin Blocks- Preliminary Tracking Block- Pixel Information Submodule- Hand-Hold Submodule
Nov 24	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Finish Individual Blocks- Glove block finished- Remaining submodules in Gameplay block<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Grabbing and Movement
Nov 27	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Integration and Minor Debugging- Integrating each major block- Gameplay testing
Dec 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Additional Features- Smoother movement and tracking- Map editor- Better graphics

Thank You

Image Sources:

<http://www.theskichannel.com/news/20091119/your-chance-to-design-the-tom-wallisch-pro-model-kombi-glove-for-next-year/>

<http://qubegame.blogspot.com/2009/12/glove-design.html>

<http://seamlesstextures.deviantart.com/>

<http://www.clker.com/clipart-webcam.html>

<http://www.colonyofgamers.com/cogforums/showthread.php?t=18026>

<http://sebmeyer.com/rock-climbing-in-iraqi-kurdistan>

<http://www.littlebigplanet.com/games/littlebigplanet-2>

<http://applications-station.blogspot.com/2013/08/free-download-call-of-duty-4-highly.html>